

CRAWFORD CO. DIRECTORY.
COUNTY OFFICERS.

Sheriff..... J. F. Hunt
Clerk..... O. J. Bell
Register..... O. J. Bell
Treasurer..... Wm. Woodburn
Prosecuting Attorney..... M. J. Conning
Judge of Probate..... W. H. Patterson
C. O. Com..... M. J. Conning
Surveyor..... A. E. Newman
Coroners..... W. H. Sherman and M. O. Atwood

SUPERVISORS.

Grove Township..... Wm. C. Johnson
South Branch..... Ira H. Richardson
Beaver Creek..... T. E. Hastings
Maple Forest..... John B. Calkins Grayling..... J. M. Flins Frederickville..... Duran Whitt Ball..... Chas. Jackson
Cent. Plains..... F. P. Richardson
Blaine..... Peter Achel

SOCIETY MEETINGS.

Mr. CHURCH—Rev. G. S. Wier, Pastor.
Services at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 o'clock p. m.
Sunday school at 12:30 p. m.—Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

GRAYLING LODGE, No. 354, F. & A. M., meets in regular communication on Thursday evening or before the full of the moon.
Transient members are fraternally invited to attend.

G. M. F. DAVIS, W. M.

A. TAYLOR, Secretary.

MARIN POST, No. 240, G. A. R., meets the second Saturday in each month.

O. J. BELL, Post Commander.

J. J. COVENTRY, Adjutant.

GRAYLING LODGE, No. 14, SONS OF IN-DUSTRY, hold their regu'lar meetings on the first and third Wednesday evenings of each month. From May 1st to Nov. 1st, at 8 o'clock.
From Nov. 1st to May 1st, at 7:30.

F. F. THATCHER, Master.

JOHN C. HANSON, Secretary.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

MRS. T. W. MITCHELL & CO.,

MILLINER & DRESSMAKER
GRAYLING, MICH.

GEO. L. ALEXANDER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, ETC.
Plat Lands Bought and Sold on Commission.

Non-Residents' Lands Looked After.

ROSCOMMON, - - - MICH.

MAIN J. CONNING,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,
GRAYLING, MICH.

O. PALMER,

Justice of the Peace and Notary.

Collections, conveyancing, payment of taxes, and purchase and sale of real estate promptly and attended to. Offices across Michigan and Peninsular Avenues, opposite the Court House, GRAYLING, MICH.

F. F. THATCHER, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON,
GRAYLING, MICH.

Office and Residence in the Hospital Building, on Cedar Street.

G. M. F. DAVIS, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON,
GRAYLING, MICH.

Office at Residence, corner of Michigan Avenue and Chestnut Street.

GRAYLING HOUSE,
W. A. WILD, Proprietor,
GRAYLING, MICH.

The Grayling House is conveniently situated, being near the best hotel houses, is well built and furnished throughout in first-class style. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of guests. Fine sample-rooms for commercial travelers.

CENTRAL HOTEL,
GRAYLING, MICH.

W. M. FORTIER, Proprietor.

This house is located conveniently near to the depot and business houses. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of guests.
Meals served at all hours.

OLIVER RAYMOND,

TONSONIAL ARTIST,
GRAYLING, MICH.

Shaving and Hair-Cutting done in the latest style, and to the satisfaction of all. Shop near corner of Michigan Avenue and Railroad Street.

June 1st.

A. E. NEWMAN,

COUNTY SURVEYOR
GRAYLING, MICH.

Five timber lands looked after. Correct estimates given. Trespasses estimated and collected. Surveying done in all its branches.

July 10, '84.

O. J. BELL,

GRAYLING, MICH.

DEALER IN

FARMING LANDS

Also agent for Ross's Addition to the Village of Grayling. Farms and lots sold at reasonable prices, and on terms to suit purchasers.

July 10, '84.

J. R. McDONALD,

MANUFACTURER OF

Boots and Shoes,

GRAYLING, MICH.

Special attention given to fine sowed work Repairing attended to promptly.

RASMUSSEN & HANSON,

PROPRIETORS OF

CITY

LIVERY STABLE,

GRAYLING, MICH.

FIRST-CLASS RIGS

To let at all hours at reasonable prices. Hunting parties supplied with complete outfit, consisting of boats, guns, dogs, etc. Guides furnished and parties taken to the hunting ground at low rates.

Grayling Avalanche

O. PALMER,

JUSTICE AND RIGHT.

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1885.

Publisher and Proprietor.

VOLUME VII.

NUMBER 17.

CLASS SONG.

BY GEO. K. HARRITT.

We stand upon a green's can,
Where with the prospect open;
We gaze far down the way below,
And see the mountains and the slopes.
But what appears so fair to-day,
We find rough and rugged way,
And weary did toll and strive To bear the Cross of "85.

It steep and rugged was the ground,
With the road which we tried,
Yet beth the comradeship we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide.
The road through Pine Creek again,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

Peyron, above, the lofty height Allows us to still onward go—Where others kindest by the sight,
And with the sun's rays we know.
And may the path hold all pure joys,
As rich rewards, a few alloy,
As we must strive
To gain the height of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

It is steep and rugged is the ground,
Of the road which we found,
And strong and true each trusted guide,
With every task well done,
With fears dispelled, and hopes alive,
We hold the Crown of '85.

The Avalanche

O. PALMER, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1855.

Entered at the Post Office at Grayling, Mich., as second-class matter.

POLITICAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Cleveland is a mugwump and not a Democrat.—Pittsburg Times.

Chicago is not so popular a summer resort as Joliet with Chilagoons this summer. There's a great rush to the cool corridors of the state-prison.
Philadelphia News.

On Saturday last the postoffice at Mendon passed into the hands of G.
Dr. Osgood, who though now professing to be a Democrat of the Bourbon stripe, last fall peddled tickets for John P. St. John. He is now getting his pay.

Perry Hamlin, of Traverse City, gave his opinion on newspaper advertising as follows to one of the press excursionists to that city: "There is no man in Michigan who loves more to newspapers than I do. Advertising has made my er's bills, when they reached me, but I feel grateful for all that to the newspaper."

Chicago has raised more than the amount wanted to erect a monument to Gen. Grant's memory. New York has raised scarcely half as much for the national monument it proposed to build. That shows the difference between New York and Chicago. There is more wind than muscle in the larger city.—Det. Post.

The historic house at Appomattox
Court-house, Va., in which Grant and Lee signed the terms of surrenders of the latter in 1865, has been draped in mourning by the citizens, token of respect to Gen. Grant's memory.

The administration has gone troutshing, and the bait was carried in sundry black bottles. The country appears to be left to its own devices,
while its head goes off on a juncture.

The above is from the Democratic
press of the country of last summer,
and of several previous summers. It applies with exactly as much force
at the present time, but we miss its familiar presence in our Democratic exchanges.

An Eastern merchant says: "During the last twenty years I have spent thousands of dollars in advertising in all the old and new-fangled methods
which are daily set before persistent advertisers, and have long been satisfied that if a man tells the truth in the newspapers, he is sure to get ample returns for his money. Two or three lines in a large daily has often resulted in returning to me one hundred times
the cost."

Another appointee of the president was jailed yesterday at Denver, Colorado. He is used to it and therefore doesn't mind it much. He is a special agent of the national labor bureau, appointed May 16th last. The charge against him this time is horse-stealing.
He admits his guilt and also candidly acknowledges that he has served one in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, and two terms in the Colorado penitentiary for a similar offense. His name is C. P. Judd and he was appointed on recommendation of several well-known Democrats of Colorado. This gives the president a chance to write another letter.—*Det.
Post*.

The people have read with gratification Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplemented by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the critic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought Richmond protected as it was by our splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

Gen. Grant's Monument.

Believing that the people of Michigan
revere the memory of General Grant
in common with the people of other states, and feeling that our citizens would encourage a movement for the erection of a suitable memorial in the metropolis of the state, Mabley &
Co. addressed a letter to the city council
on the first inst., offering to contribute the sum of $500 toward the erection of a Grant memorial in Detroit, providing $25,000 was raised by popular subscription, and to give $1,000 providing $50,000 was raised by the people.
Their suggestion received the cordial endorsement of the press, but nothing has been done as yet to perfect an organization of public spirited citizens to assume the direction of the movement. Without organized effort nothing can be accomplished. The suggestion has been made that the Grand Army of the Republic is the proper
organization to assume charge of the work. Mabley & Co. will be glad to aid the soldiers of Michigan to secure a fitting testimonial to the illustrious
achievements of their old commander,
and hold themselves in readiness to further any movements having this end in view. Michigan ought not to yield the honor to any sister commonwealth of paying a tribute to the distinguished
services of the great hero of the war for the preservation of the union.—Det. Post.

The following suggestive and circumstantial statement is made by the Kingston, N. Y., Freeman, a paper
which is responsible for all it says: C.
E. Elliott of Milton, whose house during the war was a refuge for wounded rebels and rebel spies, has been preferred over all the patriotic Democrats
of Ulster county for a fit birth in the New York custom house. Major E.
O'Reilly was told to his face by a friend, in the presence of the whole Democratic central committee of Ulster county, that except for his service in the Union army he could have had the endorsement of the committee for the Roundout postmastership.—
Troy N. Y. Times.

The Virginia Democrats, in their platform, adopted a plank advocating the "complete and unconditional abolition of the internal revenue system." If this resolution should be carried out in our national policy, and the excise on whisky and beer should be abolished, it would take $85,000,000 annually from the national treasury; and in the present condition of our finances, the pensions of the soldiers and the soldiers' widows of the Union army could not be paid. But we doubt if Fitzlough Lee or the man who nominated him care one whit whether they are paid or not.—Idem.

J. F. Pyne was appointed postmaster at Vinton, Iowa, displacing a Republican who was removed on the charge that he is "an offensive partisan," because he is connected with a Republican paper. And now it is stated that Pyne was tried and convicted, last year, in Dubuque for violating the penal laws. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $125 and to be imprisoned in the county jail until the fine was paid;
but, after remaining thirty days in jail, he was discharged under the poor-convict act, as a man who owned nothing and could not pay his fine. More "reform!"—Det. Post.

The historic house at Appomattox
Court-house, Va., in which Grant and
Lee signed the terms of surrenders of
the latter in 1865, has been draped in
mourning by the citizens, token of respect to Gen. Grant's memory.

The administration has gone trout-
shing, and the bait was carried in sun-
dry black bottles. The country appears to be left to its own devices,
while its head goes off on a juncture.

The above is from the Democratic
press of the country of last summer,
and of several previous summers. It
applies with exactly as much force
at the present time, but we miss
its familiar presence in our Democratic
exchanges.

An Eastern merchant says: "During
the last twenty years I have spent
thousands of dollars in advertising in
all the old and new-fangled methods
which are daily set before persistent
advertisers, and have long been satisfied that if a man tells the truth in the
newspapers, he is sure to get ample returns for his money. Two or three
lines in a large daily has often resulted
in returning to me one hundred times
the cost."

Another appointee of the president
was jailed yesterday at Denver, Colorado. He is used to it and therefore
doesn't mind it much. He is a special
agent of the national labor bureau, ap-
pointed May 16th last. The charge
against him this time is horse-stealing.
He admits his guilt and also candidly
acknowledges that he has served one
in the penitentiary at Leaven-
worth, Kansas, and two terms in
the Colorado penitentiary for a similar
offense. His name is C. P. Judd and
he was appointed on recommendation of
several well-known Democrats of Colorado. This gives the president a chance to write another letter.—*Det.
Post*.

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought
Richmond protected as it was by our
splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to
our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have
carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

Gen. Grant's Monument.

Believing that the people of Michigan
revere the memory of General Grant
in common with the people of other states, and feeling that our citizens
would encourage a movement for
the erection of a suitable memorial in
the metropolis of the state, Mabley &
Co. addressed a letter to the city council
on the first inst., offering to contribute
the sum of $500 toward the erection
of a Grant memorial in Detroit, providing $25,000 was raised by popular
subscription, and to give $1,000 providing $50,000 was raised by the people.
Their suggestion received the cordial
endorsement of the press, but nothing
has been done as yet to perfect an organization of public spirited citizens to
assume the direction of the move-
ment. Without organized effort nothing
can be accomplished. The suggestion
has been made that the Grand
Army of the Republic is the proper
organization to assume charge of the
work. Mabley & Co. will be glad to
aid the soldiers of Michigan to secure
a fitting testimonial to the illustrious
achievements of their old commander,
and hold themselves in readiness to
further any movements having this
end in view. Michigan ought not to
yield the honor to any sister common-
wealth of paying a tribute to the distinguished
services of the great hero of
the war for the preservation of the union.—Det. Post.

The following suggestive and cir-
cumstantial statement is made by the
Kingston, N. Y., Freeman, a paper
which is responsible for all it says: C.
E. Elliott of Milton, whose house during
the war was a refuge for wounded
rebels and rebel spies, has been pre-
ferred over all the patriotic Democrats
of Ulster county for a fit birth in the
New York custom house. Major E.
O'Reilly was told to his face by a
friend, in the presence of the whole
Democratic central committee of
Ulster county, that except for his service in the Union army he could have
had the endorsement of the committee
for the Roundout postmastership.—
Troy N. Y. Times.

A Texas clergyman endeavored to console the last hours of a dying man.
"What if it that you regret most taking leave off?" he asked.
"My life, parson."

At a seance a widow whose mother had recently died wished to communicate with the spirit of her husband. The connection being made she said:

"Do you see much of dear mamma in heaven, John?"
"I never see her at all."

"Is it possible, John," continued the widow, regretfully, "that even now you cannot learn to love mamma?"

"I would be very glad to love the lady," replied angelic John, "if I had the ghost of a chance, but the trouble is she isn't here."

"Some people have got no feelin' of humanity a tall," growled a disgusted tramp to his partner.

"What's the row?" asked his partner.

"Why, them darn people up at the house on the hill set the dog on me."
"Is that all?" in a strong tone of disappointment.

"No, it hain't."

"What else did they do?"

"We the damn bound barge on to my pants as I was tryin' ter git away, an' I drug 'em down the hill, an' I'm a hog if the whole family didn't git after me with clubs an' thangs, howlin' at every jump: 'Bring back that dog!
Bring back that dog!' as if I was want-in' ter steal their dog cur."

That's the truth, and the bait was carried in sundry black bottles. The country appears to be left to its own devices,
while its head goes off on a juncture.

The above is from the Democratic
press of the country of last summer,
and of several previous summers. It
applies with exactly as much force
at the present time, but we miss
its familiar presence in our Democratic
exchanges.

Another appointee of the president
was jailed yesterday at Denver, Colorado. He is used to it and therefore
doesn't mind it much. He is a special
agent of the national labor bureau, ap-
pointed May 16th last. The charge
against him this time is horse-stealing.
He admits his guilt and also candidly
acknowledges that he has served one
in the penitentiary at Leaven-
worth, Kansas, and two terms in
the Colorado penitentiary for a similar
offense. His name is C. P. Judd and
he was appointed on recommendation of
several well-known Democrats of Colorado. This gives the president a chance to write another letter.—*Det.
Post*.

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought
Richmond protected as it was by our
splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to
our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have
carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought
Richmond protected as it was by our
splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to
our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have
carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought
Richmond protected as it was by our
splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to
our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have
carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought
Richmond protected as it was by our
splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to
our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have
carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought
Richmond protected as it was by our
splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to
our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have
carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought
Richmond protected as it was by our
splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to
our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have
carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

"Sir, your opinion is a very poor
compliment to me. We all thought
Richmond protected as it was by our
splendid fortifications and defended
by our army of veterans, could not be taken. Yet Grant turned his face to
our capital and never turned it away
until we had surrendered. Now I have
carefully searched the military records
of both ancient and modern history,
and have never found Grants superior
as a general. I doubt if his superior
can be found in all history."

The people have read with gratifica-
tion Gen. Grant's exalted opinion of
Gen. Lee as a commander. Grant's
opinion of Lee is happily supplement-
ed by Lee's of Grant. This is now
for the first time given to the public by
Dr. Swift, as coming from a member of
Lee's staff. In the presence of Gen.
Lee an officer spoke slightly of Gen.
Grant. Gen. Lee looked into the crit-
ic's eyes steadily and said:

NEWS CONDENSED.

Concise Record of the Week.

EASTERN.

At a meeting of the Associated Bessie-er Steel Hull Manufacturers at Long Branch it was agreed to limit the production to the demand, the reduction to take effect January 1, 1886.

James Horace Jones, a wife-murderer, was executed at Troy, N. Y. He made the following will: "I die not and bequeath to Rev. Peter Havermeyer, my sole trustee, my body. I hope and trust he will see it buried decently and protected from mutilation. I also give and bequeath my heart to Rome and my soul to heaven. I appoint Father Havermeyer executor of my will." Jones walked to the scaffold with a steely step and was wonderfully cool while the final preparations for his execution were being made. He refused to say anything and appeared anxious that there should be no delay.

Several tenement houses took fire from a barrel factory in Jersey City, and before the flames were subdued six three-story buildings, occupied by seventy-five families, were burned to the ground. The tenants all escaped in their night clothes.

Six gas wells are now in operation at Findlay, Ohio, yielding a total average of 4,000,000 feet daily.

John Ronch's schedule, filed in New York, shows liabilities of $2,222,477.61, while the nominal assets are $5,105,086.87, and the net assets $4,481,478.23.

Pray, a hired woman of sixty, who was once a maid-servant in Philadelphia, has just been released from an insitute in this city, where she had been incarcerated for twenty-seven years as "extravagant" and "eccentric." She is in full possession of her faculties, and it is claimed, has never been otherwise.

A young man known as Charles Hylem, who has been a waiter in a Pittsburgh restaurant for two years past, proves to be the son of a wealthy British nobleman, who left his home on account of excesses while at college. Having received a liberal remittance and been promised parental forgiveness, Hylem has resigned his place as waiter and will join his family in Sweden.

WESTERN.

the thievery or recovery of the money.

A San Francisco dispatch announces the death in that city of Helen Hunt Jackson, the unknown author of "Ragged Robin," was cancer of the stomach, and she literally starved to death.

In a collision with riotous strikers at Bay City, Mich., Sheriff Brennan was wounded in the head. None of the mob were arrested.

A sensation has been created in Youngstown, Ohio, by the assertion of a local clergyman from his pulpit that several "society ladies" of that city have been muner treatment for delirium tremens. Indication was high, and the reverend gentleman will be asked to name his authority.

The seven-anniversary of the institution of the Independent Order of Foresters in Illinois was celebrated at Chicago. There was an imposing parade under command of Chief Marshal William Kilpatrick, with Chief of Police Doyle as his aid. At the conclusion of the parade addresses were made in the Baseball Park. There were about 4,500 men in line.

William Duff Haynes, of Bloomington, Ill., has been appointed Chief Clerk to the Postmaster General.

Postmaster General Vilas has left Washington on a vacation. He will be absent from duty two or three weeks.

Sixteen mills at Saginaw City are now running on eleven hours' time, and only four ten-hour mills are in operation.

John Oate, an aged farmer, living alone near Missouri City, Mo., was found dead in bed, with his hands and feet bound, and several wounds in his head.
There is no clue to the murderer or their motive.

In the Chickasaw Nation, I. T., David Hunter shot and killed Samuel Smiley in a quarrel about some horses. Hunter died, but was pursued by Smiley's friends and slain.

Wheat in Minnesota, north of St.
Paul, has been damaged by blight and insects, and south of St. Paul by hot weather and storms. Corn in the same territory is doing well. In Indiana there is an excess in the acreage of buckwheat and tobacco and a decrease in the acreage of flaxseed and oats compared with 1884.

Cherokee Indians who are dissatisfied with the leases of their lands to the cattle syndicate, will petition President Cleveland to proclaim them "inviolate" and order the immediate removal of the cattle.

The corn crop in Central Illinois will be one of the largest ever known, many fields averaging seventy-five bushels to the acre.

Near Eddyville, Iowa, one section of a railroad train carrying Forrester's circus ran into another, wrecking several cars and seriously injuring a number of employees.

It is reported from Billings, Montana, that a party of cattlemen attacked a band of twenty Piegans Indians on the Missouri River, killing all of them, and recovering seventy-five stolen horses which were in their possession.

SOUTHERN.

The Hon. Robert Mallory, member of Congress from Kentucky during the war,

Henry Preese was hanged for murder, at Catlettsburg, Kentucky, dying with the declaration that he was going to glory.
At Laredo, Texas, two Mexican murderers were executed.

"Buck" Anderson, a Cherokee de-partado, was shot and killed near Fort Smith, Arkansas, by a United States Marshal, while resisting arrest for smuggling whisky into Indian Territory.

WASHINGTON.

Secretary Manning has issued an order forbidding the receiving of accounts in the Treasury Department after they have been closed, except in cases where material evidence is discovered after the settlement. The order is aimed at a flagrant abuse of law.

C. P. Judd, special agent of the Linen Bureau, confined at the jail headquarters, for horse-stealing, has his discon-mission revoked by Commissioner Wright.

The following is a technical description of the new immediate-delivery stamp: A line engraved on steel, oblong in form; dimensions, 13-10 by 17-10 inches; color, dark blue; design on the left, an arched panes bearing the figure of a mail messenger on a run, and surmounted by the words "United States"; on the right, an oblong tablet, ornamented with a wreath of oak and laurel surrounding the words, "Ourbs immediate delivery at a special delivery office." Across the top of the tablet is the legend, "Special postal delivery," and at the bottom the words "Ten cents," separated by a small shield bearing the numeral "10."

The Acting Commissioner of the General Land Office has declined to leave any more patents to the Northern Pacific Railroad until the legal status of the road shall have been fixed.

The Army and Navy Journal, in addition to the list of army officers who will be ordered back to their regiments, having been on detached service more than four years, publishing the following list of officers who will be exempted from the operation of the order, having been put on detached service from the Secretary of War: Col. John C. Tidball, First Artillery; Artillery school, eleven years and three months; Lieut. Col. Robert N. Scott, Third Artillery, was record, seven years and eight months; Maj. Richard Loder, artillery school, six years; Capt. A. P.
Blunt, military prison, eight years and three months; Capt. F. N. Greene, military academy, thirteen years and four months; Capt.
Richard H. Pratt, Tenth Cavalry; Capt.
John C. Tidball, First Artillery, eleven years and four months.

POLITICAL.

The anti-monopolists of New York will meet at Albany, Sept. 8, to nominate a State ticket.

Following in the last batch of appointments made by the President just before his departure from Washington:

William H. Tolson, of Philadelphia, Iowa, to be Special Indian Agent of $2,000 a year, vice H.
F. Folson, removed.

Joseph Colburn, of Denver, Colo., to be a third Assistant U. S. Marshal, and James Duane, of the Pension Office, to be a fourth.

To be Secretary of the Territory of New Mexico: George W. Lans, of Buffalo, N. Y., vice John C. Tidball, First Artillery, who has been elected to the Klamath Agency, Oregon; Charles H.
Trotter, of Nebraska, at the Omaha and Winona Agency, in Nebraska; William H. Spofford, of Robert L. Owen, of Indiana, Territory; to the Twin Cities, Minn., to be a fifth.

The Illinois State Department of Agriculture received a letter from State Entomologist Forbes stating that great damage was being done by grasshoppers to crops in the northern portion of the State.

Maxwell, the alleged murderer of C.
Arthur Preller, reached St. Louis on the 16th inst., and was met at the railway station by several thousand curious people. The prison still maintains a dogged silence whenever questioned about the hotel tragedy.

It is alleged that four distillers who had been discovered were using the "thickened-staves" whisky barrel have compromised with the Government, the sum to be paid amounting to $20,000.

The Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims will expire by limitation Dec.
31. An enormous amount of business remained unsettled, and an effort will probably be made to induce Congress to prolong the court's existence.

Defective drainage has caused an epidemic of typhoid fever at the Morris Plains Institute asylums.

In a race between bicyclists and a team of horses near Erie, Pa., the horses became frightened and ran away, throwing the riders.

It is reported that the Anthracite Coal Companies have determined to reduce the output of the mines to the extent of 300, 000 tons during September and contemplate an increase in October 1.

Jasper W. Umbeck, a New York boy of seventeen, committed suicide at the cottage of a relative in Port Chester, after shooting and dangerously wounding J. M.
Carpenter, a cousin, of about the same age.

The tragedy is attributed to an unbalanced mind, the result of overstudy.

The Attorney General of Pennsylvania proposes it is said, to take official action to prevent consummation of a bargain made by the Standard Oil Company with a com-misioner of certain states.

Waldo P. Johnson, a prominent lawyer of Missouri, died at Osceola, in that State. He represented Missouri in the United States Senate at the outbreak of the war, and was expelled for disloyalty. He was afterward a member of the Confederate Senate.

Ann Hogan, colored, age 120 years, died near Vicksburg, Miss., last week.

At Graham, Ga., the house of Simon Ashby, colored, was burned, and the dead body of his four children found in the ruins. It is thought they were murdered, and the building fired to destroy evidence of the crime.

Montreal hospitals are completely filled with small-pox patients. In fact, there is not sufficient room to provide for the stricken.

A sensation has been created in London by the marriage of Lord Chief Justice Coleridge to Miss Amy Augusta Jackson-Lawford. The ceremony, which was performed quietly at the residence of the lady's mother, is said to have been hastened by threats of an action for breach of promise against his lordship. The bride is an English woman of 30, whose acquaintance Lord Coleridge made on the steamer in which he returned from America two years ago.

Cable advices are to the effect that all Europe enters upon its vacation season with a prospect undisturbed by war.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

BEEFERS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.75
HOGS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00
WHEAT—No. 1 White, $1.97 to $2.00
No. 2 Red, $1.97 to $2.00
CORN—No. 1, $1.54 to $1.65
OATS—White, $1.37 to $1.42
PORK—Mess., $1.00 to $1.10

CHICAGO.

BEEFERS—Choice to Prime Steers, $6.75
Good Shipping, $6.50

CORN—Common, $4.00 to $4.25

HOGS—Fancy Red Winter Ex., $4.00 to $4.25

PRICES TO CHOICE SPRING, $3.75 to $4.25

WHEAT—No. 1, $4.25 to $4.50

POTATOES—New per brl., $2.25 to $2.50

PORK—MESS., $0.90 to $1.00

BALTIMORE.

BEEFERS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

HOGS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

WHEAT—No. 1, $1.97 to $2.00

CORN—No. 1, $1.54 to $1.65

OATS—White, $1.37 to $1.42

PORK—MESS., $1.00 to $1.10

PHILADELPHIA.

BEEFERS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

HOGS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

WHEAT—No. 1, $1.97 to $2.00

CORN—No. 1, $1.54 to $1.65

OATS—White, $1.37 to $1.42

PORK—MESS., $1.00 to $1.10

BOSTON.

BEEFERS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

HOGS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

WHEAT—No. 1, $1.97 to $2.00

CORN—No. 1, $1.54 to $1.65

OATS—White, $1.37 to $1.42

PORK—MESS., $1.00 to $1.10

DETROIT.

BEEFERS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

HOGS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

WHEAT—No. 1, $1.97 to $2.00

CORN—No. 1, $1.54 to $1.65

OATS—White, $1.37 to $1.42

PORK—MESS., $1.00 to $1.10

CINCINNATI.

BEEFERS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

HOGS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

WHEAT—No. 1, $1.97 to $2.00

CORN—No. 1, $1.54 to $1.65

OATS—White, $1.37 to $1.42

PORK—MESS., $1.00 to $1.10

INDIANAPOLIS.

BEEFERS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

HOGS—No. 1, $4.25 to $5.00

WHEAT—No. 1, $1.97 to $2.00

CORN—No. 1, $1.54 to $1.65

OATS—White, $1.37 to $1.42